

Executive Officers & Trustees Service History 2009 – Present

Unions function through the dedication and service of their members. The work of upholding the constitution and by-laws, maintaining the administrative functions, defending the collective agreement and directing activities from committee work to bargaining is done by the elected officers on the Executive and the Trustees. As has been the case throughout the history of unions, the majority of this work is completed by volunteers committed to bettering the working environment of other members and working people generally.

The following lists the individuals who served in these roles between 2009 and the present.
